

THE NORFOLK DEFLATION.

News of the Missing Norfolk Bank.
Is Dedicated to the National Bank of Norfolk Party—Received Large Amount of the Deflation One Hundred Thousand Dollars Instead of Fifty Thousand.

SUSPENDED MEMBER CORRESPONDENCE.

Postmaster, Monday, Feb. 12, 1866.
Mr. Wm. Clark, the missing banker of Norfolk, stated in my last letter as having left several days ago with the money of his depositors, and without any explanation as to where he had gone, and how long he remained away, is still the leading subject of interest. To-day it is rumored that the Exchange National Bank have him deposited some forty thousand dollars on their books, which, if the report be true, makes him a defaulter in the amount of nearly one hundred thousand dollars. The president and cashier of the Exchange National Bank left the city this morning, and their object is said to be to look up Mr. Clark, and to confer with him in regard to his deposit. It is now told, freely offered at ten cents on the dollar, largely in oil speculations, and failure to realize, was at first attributed as the sole cause of his sudden deflation. A bit of romance, or the reverse, may also be true, but I may choose to interpret it as I please. To attach to his name, however, is to do him a disservice, for his depositors have going away is greatly reported by many as a sudden left bank movement to extricate himself from the meshes of a fauching widow and mother of seven infantile responsibilities. I do not know the truth of the matter, but I am sure that the reason, that he has gone, and taken a large sum of money away with him, and that there is great anxiety for his return, on the part of his attached friends, that he may show himself right and clear up his reputation, and on the part of his creditors that they may get their money back.

Postmaster, Monday, Feb. 12, 1866.

Now say lessons the hope of the return of Mr. Clark, the defaulter Norfolk banker, and at the same time brings to light new victims. I learn to-day that the gold and silver (about seven thousand dollars altogether) he had for show in his windows belonged to a widow lady, who loaned it to him for this purpose. This money, it seems, he also took with him. Such facts being made public, very naturally diminish what little of sympathy existed for him, and his sudden left bank to extricate himself from his debts, up to this time will not probably be long before the fact of his malice or otherwise in the Specie will be positively made known.

SITUATION OF DELEGATES FOR THE PITTSBURG CONGRESS—GENERAL LOGAN TO SPEAK.

There are about half a dozen of the Fusion circles in this city which support the war policy of General Scott and the Senate. The delegates for the Pittsburg Congress started yesterday. More leave to-day. General Logan is announced to address the convention. It will be a significant assembly. The whole country is eager for the outcome. The general impression is that Sweety will sound the tocsin immediately on adjournment, and we will fit all its out for him, for his army are said to be already secured.

THE FENIANS IN JERSEY CITY.

One of the most practical Fenián "demonstrations" of these latter days came off in Jersey City last Sunday evening. Cooper Hall was crowded by citizens eager to hear the cause of Ireland, which was done in a spirit of frank and fearless manner by T. P. F. Clarke, a Irishman of the Merchant's. Mr. Clarke Hall of the Dennis Circle, and others. Sixty-five earnest and intelligent workers joined hands in a new circle called the Doheny Circle, electing Mr. T. Doheny and a full corps of officers. Some seventy-five dollars was subscribed on the spot, and the sum will be sent to the Fenián Committee, to make a creditable record for their circle.

NOTICE FROM JOHN MITCHELL TO COLONEL JOHN O'MAHONY.

The following is an extract of a letter from John Mitchell to Mr. O'Mahony. The letter is dated at Paris, January 27:

I congratulate you on having got rid of the tide of French, and now got rid of the tide of Americans, and that those who were coming to that point, and that there would be infallibly an open rupture. Your own message, and find it very appropriate. We shew the real and sincere Irishmen, who desire the success of our cause, will rally round you, and probably the organization will be as strong as ever.
